

Bringing the learning to you

TRAINING AND EDUCATION ANALYSIS [TEA]

With credibility and expertise in organisational learning strategy the learning taskforce offers a comprehensive consultancy service in analysing the educational and training needs of small and medium size businesses.

We recognise the complexities of managing a diverse workforce and of implementing a realistic and achievable learning strategy that is cost-effective and manageable within training resources.

Our Consultants are available for TEA at your convenience and can guarantee supporting your organisation to implement a strategy specific to your needs. The benefits include:

- Improved targeting of learner need
- Cost effective training provision
- Increased skills level of the workforce
- Improved staff performance
- Improved productivity
